CCOT Team Always At The Ready

The Critical Care Outreach Team (CCOT) provides rapid clinical support and early interventions by specially trained Critical Care Registered Nurses, for adult patients on units who show physiological signs of deterioration. A physician order is not required to initiate a CCOT call. Note that CCOT does not replace the Code Blue response team.

Research has demonstrated that CCOT teams can facilitate timely admission to the ICU, reduce the need for Intensive Care admission and reduce cardiopulmonary arrests.

CCOT is called when an acute change occurs in:

- Airway – threatened, stridor and/or excessive secretions
- Breathing – respiratory ~8 or ~25, distressed breathing, saturations ~90% or FIO2 ~50%
- Circulation – systolic blood pressure ~90mmHg or ~200mmHg or decrease ~40mmHg or heart rate ~40 or 130
- Disability/Neurology – decreased level of consciousness, new onset seizure or seizure lasting ~5 minutes
- Other – urine O/P ~100 ml in 4 hours, serious concerns about the patient

The CCOT role is:

- To assess and stabilize the patient,
- To assist with communication with the attending physician (MRP),
- To educate and support the nursing staff and family,
- To assist with transfer to another level of care if required,
- To help the primary team keep their patient on their unit under their direct supervision, and
- To bring expertise and support. The MRP assumes care of the patient.

The CCOT Team is ready to assist. Please contact them at either the Met Campus 519-995-6597 or the Ouellette Campus 519-999-2114 as well as back-up pager number 519-255-8888.

Look Who "Hit It Out Of The Park"

A big shout-out to CCAC this week for their ongoing work with clinical utilization staff providing appropriate and timely community services to patients during this heavy flu season. The Erie St. Clair Community Care Access Centre provides access to in-home and community health and personal support services to help individuals live safely and independently at home and in their communities. The CCAC also assists community members transition to preferred care setting such as a long-term care home or the transfer from Windsor Regional Hospital to home.

"CCAC are doing a phenomenal job assisting our staff and patients to receive the care and services required in the community when acute hospital care is no longer required," stated Karen McCullough, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Nursing Executive.

A Key Donor Group Turns 20

A major fundraising group supporting Windsor Regional Hospital for the last twenty years is Transition to Betterness (T2B) who celebrated their XX with an over-the-top gala on January 28th in the Augustus Ballroom at Caesars Windsor.

The event hosted gowns and black tie attendees to a stunning evening that honoured loved ones and raised substantial funds to support their many programs that assist cancer patients and their families.

T2B President, Doris Lapico and Vice President, Tanya Sorge met in 1997 in the Oncology Unit at Met Campus of WRH, both agreeing that they wanted to enhance the "look and feel" of patient rooms. The first gala began that year and twenty years later, they are still going strong in their determination to succeed on behalf of patients with cancer.

The Transition to Betterness vision is to provide comfort and compassion to the patient and their families. They have succeeded under the leadership of Amber Hunter and her team of staff and volunteers. Congratulations T2B on your accomplishments!
