WRH hosts Humour Conference

Dr. Clifford Kuhn, a psychiatrist and a comedian will be the featured speaker at the Humour Conference being held on Friday, April 13th, 2007. This may be of interest to physicians, nurses, social workers, allied health professionals and support staff. To register contact Shirley Fields at 519-257-5152 or sfields@wrh.on.ca.

National Oncology Nurses Day

April 4th is National Oncology Nurses Day. Oncology nurses demonstrate excellence in patient care, teaching, research, administration, and education in the field of oncology nursing and endeavour to educate the public about the prevention and treatment of cancer.

Extreme Makeover - ER Edition

Tickets are now on sale for Extreme Makeover ER Edition to be held at the Fogular Furlan on April 27, 2007. The event will consist of a buffet dinner, auction and music by Company 6. Tickets are $40 or $75 per couple. Contact Pat Allan at ext. 52316 or Linda McLean at 52005. Funds raised will support the refurbishment of the Emergency Department.

Lunch and Learn—Shift Health

A 'Lunch and Learn' session will be offered at the Met Auditorium and video-conferenced to the classroom C at the Western Auditorium on April 17th at noon. The workshop will focus on gaining practical tools, tips and strategies for improving alertness, getting good quality sleep, staying healthy and maintaining family harmony while working in shifts.

Hospitality Network gives back to WRH

Hospitality Network is pleased to be the television rental service provider for the Windsor Regional Hospital – Western Campus, Windsor Regional Hospital – Metropolitan Campus, and Malden Park Continuing Care Centre. As the provider of television rental services, their goal is to not only enhance patient satisfaction through rental services, but to also generate a new source of revenue for the Windsor Regional Hospital. In 2006, Hospitality Network returned over $198,000 back to the Windsor Regional Hospital.
