

WINDSOR
REGIONAL HOSPITAL

OUR FAMILY... CARING FOR YOUR FAMILY

Tribune

May 19, 2009 | VOLUME III | EDITION 18 www.wrh.on.ca

OUR VISION: Outstanding care—no Exceptions!

If you want to be happy, be. Leo Tolstoy

H1N1 Influenza Screening

WRH is returning to passive screening (signage only) at the front entrances but active screening (signage and verbal questions) will be maintained at all points of service. Staff are reminded to continue to be vigilant and ensure precautions are taken in the event that a visitor or patient presents with flu symptoms.

ICU Collaborative CLI VAP Presentation

Windsor Regional Hospital hosted an across-Canada webcast on May 13 on the hospital's successful reduction in Central Line Infections and Ventilator Acquired Pneumonia as part of the Safer Healthcare Now initiative. Congratulations to Karen Riddell on capturing a national audience for these indicators, reviewed by the Board of Directors Quality of Care Committee.

Windsor Reads

Windsor Regional Hospital will be participating in Windsor Reads. On May 27th, 2009, Jim Crichton, A Channel News Anchorman and friend of WRH, will read "It's Spring in Algonquin Bay..." a John Cardinal Mystery, at 11am in the First Floor Lobby at Met. Windsor Reads is a celebration of the written word that takes place from May 25th to 29th in Windsor and features random readings at different public locations. Everyone is welcome.

Royal Lepage to Host Golf Tournament in Support of W.E. Care for Kids

Royal Lepage Binder Real Estate will host a tournament on June 10, 2009 at Ambassador Golf Club. The cost is $160 per golfer and includes dinner, prizes and a chance at a $10,000 hole-in-one prize. Proceeds support W.E. Care for Kids. Contact Mike at 1-519-946-3278 for more info.

Health Sciences Library

Please note, to service you better, the WRH Health Sciences Library is now open from 7am - 4pm.

Death Notification Training

Retired police officer, Lloyd Grahame will be presenting a workshop entitled Death Notification Training on Monday, May 25th, 2009 in the Clinical Education Conference Room at the Met Campus. The workshop is free to WRH staff. For more information, contact Gail Franklin at ext. 52226.

All Canadian Wine Championship Tasting—A Success

The WRH Foundation would like to extend a sincere thanks to all those who attended or volunteered at the 'All Canadian Wine Championship Tasting' last week. Over 1,100 bottles of wines were submitted by Wineries in British Columbia, Ontario, Nova Scotia, Quebec and the Arctic to the Ontario Wine Tasting Championships. All proceeds from the event support the Western Redevelopment Cornerstone of Caring Campaign.

Did you know?

May 20th, 2009 is International Clinical Trials Day. Watch for the WRH digital TVs for more information on WRH staff's participation in Clinical Trials.

The WRH Tribune is a publication of the Public Affairs Department of Windsor Regional Hospital. Submissions can be made to gisele_sullens@wrh.on.ca or by calling ext. 52008.

OUR MISSION: We provide outstanding care with compassion.

